SULLIVAN.

A happy New Year to all.
Earl Heifner has gone to Michigan to enjoy his holidays.

A horse belonging to Mr. Eli Heifner became frightened at some umbrellas that came bobbing along, while it was hitched to a road wagon in front of McAdoo's store. It broke loose and ran away breaking the harness and wagon to pieces.

We guess the Dakota blizzard struck our letter for last week as it does not seem to have reached its intended destination. So you people up in Wisconsin must not think Sullivan dead or sleeping. We are just left out with our Merry Christmas to all. We wish there was 'phonic facilities to the north from here equal to the line from the south. Could we have a line from Huntington to Sullivan it would give a direct line to Wellington.

A herd of wild ponies passed through last week. They were for sale, but no one seemed desirous of buying.

Mr. Joseph Smith is quite poorly at the home of his son, Mr. J. C. Smith. Ed. Gorham is building an addition to his farm barn.

Our business men took advantage of the holiday trade. Our three stores presented a gala appearance last week. But they are pretty well sold out. Guess the promised prosperity has come after all.

Gen. Dugan has purchased the Jas. Johnson farm of John Hubler's heirs.

Old Mrs. Hall, Lemuel Hall's mother died at the home of her son in Collinswood. Her funeral was held here Monday. Interment in Sullivan cemetery.

Mr. Pike has moved back to Sullivan. We are glad to welcome him home and hope his adjustment may be for good.

Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church met with Mrs. Merry-Bell Thursday of last week.

Quite a number of our farmers attended the Felt institute last week.

A pair of bright little twins came to Mr. Morrison's home last week, a boy and a girl.

Muriel Frink came home from Ada last Wednesday where he has been taking a business course.

E. B. Whitworth is home from Wooster University to spend vacation with his parents and friends.

D. C. Chaffee went to Wooster last week to spend the holidays with his son Eugene Chaffee.

Ora Arndt came home from Hiram college to spend the holiday vacation. Claude Arndt is in Sullivan visiting.

He likes his new home very much. Miss Clara Kiplinger from Nora will teach our primary school next term in place of Adele Swartz, who is now Mrs. Rankin Welch of Ashland.

The Sunday-schools of Sullivan enjoyed their Christmas treat this year as usual. Each church had a Christmas tree and a jolly good time.

The Bazaar and chicken pie supper at the town hall Friday and Saturday was quite a success.

OBERLIN.

Oberlin has assumed its deserted vacation appearance. Scarcely all the students and many of the teachers have gone to their homes or to friends for a long three weeks vacation.

Miss Evangeline Boushler is visiting friends in St. Clairsville, O.

Miss Frances Kelly has gone to New York to spend a part of her vacation.

The Kindergarten Association has opened an exchange on West College street in the room formerly occupied by the Johnson Dry Goods Co., where they have on sale almost anything that one may desire.

The ladies of the Sorosis Club were entertained last week at their meeting by a lecture on art by Prof. Eugene Morgan.

The Non-partisan and the Partisan W. C. T. U. are considering the question of uniting the two organizations into one.

An addition is being built to the rear of Spear Library in order to make more room for specimens in the Museum, which occupies a part of the library, and has become so crowded that a satisfactory exhibition of them was almost impossible.

The members of the (colored) First M. E. church have been, and will continue to hold at intervals, entertainments for the purpose of raising funds with which to build a new church. Some of their entertainments are novel and amusing. Last week they gave one in the Town hall characterizing the emancipation of the slaves by Abraham Lincoln.

During the holiday vacation the First and Second Congregational churches will hold union services in the evening, alternating between the two churches.

Most of the churches held their Christmas entertainments Saturday evening.

The First Congregational church was decorated with a beautiful tree. The exercises consisted of recitations, songs and a speech by Santa Claus, who made his appearance after some hesitation, covered with snow. He said he could not possibly attend to all of the presents himself and that a little bird told him to whistle and help would come, which he did and six little Japanese tots made their appearance in flowing robes, long braided curls and dusky faces, and proceeded to distribute candy, tied in Japanese napkins and popcorn balls, to all present. It is needless to say that all were happy.

Mrs. A. F. Johnston has gone west to spend her vacation with her sister.

The Weary Search for Health.

One of the most pathetic sights in life is the despondent hunt of the invalid for relief. He turns from remedy to remedy in the vain hope of ending his torture. And one of the most pleasant sights is to see that search rewarded, and to witness the first glow of health illumining the pallid cheeks.

Far be it from us to encourage any sufferer in a vain quest. We know whereof we speak. We know that Ath-lo-pho-ros will cure any case of Rheumatism or Neuralgia, no matter how severe. Thousands of grateful letters and rapidly increasing sales prove this statement to be true. Send for free Treatise.

LIMA, Ohio, March 21, 1898.

Gentlemen:—I was laid up with Rheumatism for about eight weeks, and in that time tried about everything I could hear of, and there wasn't anything that gave me relief until a friend recommended Ath-lo-pho-ros to me, which I tried, and after using two bottles was permanently cured.
